

UNKILLABLE

Music: Chris Eschborn © / Lyrics: Jon Dunmore ©

You know I am unshakeable
Stand alone and unfakeable
Ya think you can take it all
Break it all / make it fall / down at your feet

And you think you're unsinkable.
But you're weak and unthinkable
What you want is unwinnable
Because I am un -- killable [more spoken than sung]

*The truth is unthinkable
My ship is unsinkable*

Aaah ---aah / aaah aah
(2-part harmony, under words)
You won't survive / I'm still alive

Firewall is unbreachable
Like a lesson unteachable
You tried to make me take the bait
Knock you over like a heavyweight
You tried a bullet in the chest
But I'm hard as climbing Everest.
If you try and cause an accident
Gonna come back like a revenant.

Like Bruce, I'm Unbreakable
And my city untakeable
Like a villain impeccable
Cold as stone and undeckable

If you wanna get thrillable
Well my time is unbillable
Break it down to one syllable
Cos I am un---killable

*oh the lie is unstoppable
To deny is impossible
If you wanna get cynical
My job is not clinical.*
